

"The difficult cure for our relationships"

Philippians 2:1-4

1. When in conflict let us ask of ourselves: Am I motivated by _____ great love (2:1)?

- a. _____ in Christ
- b. _____ of Love in Christ
- c. _____ of the Spirit
- d. _____ and _____ in Christ

2. In conflict: Am I seeking _____ or am I seeking _____ (2:2)?

- a. The same _____
- b. The same _____
- c. _____ in Spirit
- d. Intent on _____

3. In conflict: Am I being selfish and conceited or _____ (2:3)?

4. In conflict: Am I putting their interests _____ (2:4)?

"The difficult cure for our relationships"

Philippians 2:1-4

1. When in conflict let us ask of ourselves: Am I motivated by _____ great love (2:1)?

- a. _____ in Christ
- b. _____ of Love in Christ
- c. _____ of the Spirit
- d. _____ and _____ in Christ

2. In conflict: Am I seeking _____ or am I seeking _____ (2:2)?

- a. The same _____
- b. The same _____
- c. _____ in Spirit
- d. Intent on _____

3. In conflict: Am I being selfish and conceited or _____ (2:3)?

4. In conflict: Am I putting their interests _____ (2:4)?

Questions for the week

1. If my friend or loved one is living for himself/herself and I deny myself, won't I get taken advantage of? Doesn't this only work if both parties do it?
2. How do I apply verse 2 with someone who doesn't love God or is not seeking to live by Scripture?
3. When does "being right" become a matter of pride? How can we seek to hold tightly to the truth of the gospel message, yet be humble?
4. How do we know when to say "no" to the demands of others without being selfish?

Questions for the week

1. If my friend or loved one is living for himself/herself and I deny myself, won't I get taken advantage of? Doesn't this only work if both parties do it?
2. How do I apply verse 2 with someone who doesn't love God or is not seeking to live by Scripture?
3. When does "being right" become a matter of pride? How can we seek to hold tightly to the truth of the gospel message, yet be humble?
4. How do we know when to say "no" to the demands of others without being selfish?